KNOW YOUR RIGHTS WORKSHOP

18th March 2019

Shooting Hall & Room 318 A block

Organizers: Internal Quality Assurance Cell(IQAC) and UNESCO-Bioethics Unit of SGT University

Objective of the programme: The objective of the program was to apprise the students about:

- 1) Need to know one's rights, details of the Fundamental rights and the concept of gender equality
- 2) Equality – At Work and at Home which details the legal rights and framework for sexual harassment, POCSO, Domestic Violence, Divorce, Alimony and Inheritance
- 3) Cybersafety which includes cyberstalking, bullying and how the law deals with it.
- 4) Define the Rights regarding the Police and the definition of Consent as provided by law.

The session wished to inspire the audience as well as to equip them with the right legal tools so that they don't hesitate from voicing their concerns.

Speaker: Trainer from Joshtalks- Ms Soumya Singhal

Ms Soumya Singhal has been working extensively in the field of women empowerment by interacting with student communities across the country. She does so by bringing to light the plethora of rights we have as citizens and by spreading awareness around the issue. She is also a strong proponent of mental health awareness and is working to destigmatize the same through social media and community engagement.

Brief Report of the programme:

Knowing our rights as a human is a very important thing because we can use our rights in many situations. Sometimes, our rights can get us out of troubles. If we don't know them, we cannot fight for them. The knowledge of our rights help us protect ourselves. Keeping these in mind, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in collaboration with UNESCO Bioethics Unit of SGT University organized this workshop on "Know your rights" as a part of campaign # AbSamjhauthaNahin by Josh Talks in partnership with ITCVivel.

JoshTalks is an Indian media company headquartered in Gurgaon that organizes conferences, workshops across India to motivate and empower the youth of the country. Their goal is to help the youth find & develop their sense of purpose. "Know Your Rights" project has been launched in association with ITCVivel across colleges in India to equip students with the knowledge of their legal rights and bring about a change in the mindsets of the society.

The objective of this workshop was to change the collective consciousness through an increased perceptiveness on gender-sensitive issues; enable gender-responsive actions at a personal level and build confidence through the knowledge of rights.

The workshop started with the introduction about the concept and objective for the workshop by Dr Astha Chaudhry, Member IQAC and UNESCO Bioethics Unit.

The trainer for the workshop Ms Soumya Singhal was formally welcomed with sapling by respected Director IQAC, Dr M.S Sidhu.

The workshop was an interactive session which included discussion of the basic fundamental rights each one of us have.

The concept of gender equality at workplace and at home was discussed.

There were detailed discussions about the landmark cases or trials that brought relevant reforms/ modifications in the judicial system and creation of multiple acts and laws specifically for women.

The modification of the Juvenile Justice act following Nirbhaya case, the inclusion of custodial rape after Mathura das trial, the creation of vishakha guidelines and the sexual harassment at workplace guidelines following Bhawari Devi case were the highlights the famous case of Ms Rupan Deol Bajaj vs KPS Gill, the first reported case for sexual harassment in 1988 was also discussed highlighting the Section 354 (outraging the modesty of a woman) and Section 509 (word, gesture or act intended to insult a lady). There were discussions about article 377 and LGBTQIA rights.

Multiple videos about these cases were shown to the students.

The knowledge partner in this campaign Ms Karuna Nandy, Supreme Court Advocate who was instrumental in bringing judicial modifications following the Nirbhaya case, also shared a video highlighting all the women rights including the:

- a) Internal complaints committee for sexual harassment at workplace
- b) Domestic violence
- c) Property rights for women
- d) Dowry
- e) Rape and acid attack.

The POCSO act (Protection of Children from Sexual Offences) was also discussed. The students were also enlightened about the various cyber crimes namely cyber stalking, bullying and the provisions of IT act.

The students were also informed about the women rights regards the police. There were discussions about Zero FIR.
