The meeting commenced with the formal welcome of all the members by Prof. (Dr.) Satish Chander Sharma Director IQAC to all committee members. Following this, each agenda item was discussed.

1) Compilation of NAAC-SSR data

Prof. Satish Chander Sharma apprised the members that SSR data compilation is under process and is expedited so that IIQA submission can be done by the end of this month. Action-All members agreed to work for timely compilation.

2) Verification of SSR data

Director IQAC informed that only data compilation is not enough. Each data has to be verified for the authenticity and relevancy of the data. Hence, all the members were requested to verify the data at their end. All members were apprised of and given access to the NAAC site prepared for uploading of documents on the University server.

Action- All members agreed for data verification

3) Feedback analysis

The feedback analysis report of the feedback collected from Students, Teachers, Employers, professionals and alumni about curriculum was presented by Director IQAC and the following keypoints were discussed:

- 1) There is a need to increase the placement drives to give more placement opportunities to students. CRC will be asked to organize campus placements drives.
- 2) There is an increased need to involve more and more professionals in the curriculum designing. Thus Board of studies should be reconstituted to include more external experts from the industry. Prof Dhawan was asked to take suitable action in this regard.
- 3) There is a greater need for innovative teaching methods for enhanced learning experience. All the teachers need to be trained through FDPs about various innovative ways of teaching. The Chairman IQAC informed that University is has taken a initiative in this regard and Centre of excellence for Andragogical and Pedagogical Sciences has been established for the same and has been inaugurated in October 2022. The CEAPS shall be undertaking the faculty training in this regard.
- 4) Library resources need to be replenished and updated. Chairman IQAC apprised that University has taken Scopus subscription and thus a larger database of journals and books shall now be available for students and faculty.
- 5) More fieldtrips and industrial visits are required to be conducted for students for experiential learning. All Deans and academic associations shall be informed about the same.

Action- All members and the concerned persons agreed.

The meeting concluded with vote of thanks from the Director IQAC.
